Well, it won't be long, now.

Mercy dictates that the Torrance Memorial hospital be completed before the Los Angeles county officials ask Torrance to pay part of the cost of paving Western avenue east of the Union Tool Co.

A Torrance woman was saying that there was deaf and blind folks at the Hollywood Bowl to hear Mr. Wheeler and a bozo who has voted the Republican ticket for a good many years says Well the deaf ones must have enjoyed it all right.

District C. E. Holds Great Fall Rally At Hermosa Beach

The Redondo District C. E. Union, a branch of the Los Angeles County Union, held its fall rally on Sunday, Oct. 12, at the Hermosa Baptist church. Aside from the societies forming the union, all young peoples' organizations in this locality were invited to attend.

About 175 young people were assembled. A spirited song service opened the meeting and all present joined in the singing, led by Mrs. Schwadauer, with Miss Grace Hendrickson at the piano. Rev. Rickman, the Hermosa Beach pastor, led in prayer, followed by several scintone prayers by those present, closed by Rev. Dawes of Hawthorne.

After a few well chosen words of welcome by the president of the Hermosa society, a song was rendered by the society of Moneta. Miss Marvel Mouton, representing the young people of Redondo, then read Romans 12 as the scripture chapter. This is the chapter known as the Christian Endeavor chapter, and familiar to all C. E. members. A violin solo by Miss Earle of Hermosa followed. Then announcements were made by the district president, W. E. Bowen of Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Schwadauer of Hawthorne favored with a vocal duet.

Roy Creighton, field secretary of the Los Angeles County Union, delivered the message of the afternoon.

PLAN NOVEL DANCE

Many novel features are being planned for the American Legion Auxiliary dance to be held Armistice night in Moose hall on Carson street.

Don't plan anything else for that evening, and tell all your gang about it.

AT MRS. FRENGER'S

Mrs. Ted Frenger will entertain the ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday evening, Oct. 21, at her home on Hawthorne boulevard (Gladys avenue).

All ladies who are eligible to become members of the Auxiliary (also widows of service men) are urged to attend.

Call Torrance 76-W in regard to transportation to the Frenger home.

Mrs. T. Ada Fohl is Recipient of Gift From O. E. S. Officers

A number of officers and members of Torrance Chapter, O. E. S., attended the reception given the district deputy grand matron, L. Ada Fohl, at Harbor Chapter, San Pedro, Tuesday evening.

Worthy matrons from Watts, Long Beach and Torrance were present.

Mrs. Fohl was the recipient of many gifts from her officers and friends in the chapter, among them being baskets of flowers from the worthy matrons and from the Star Points of Harbor Chapter. A very pretty feature of the presentation was the lining up of the worthy matrons, and as Mrs. Fohl passed with her basket of flowers presented by them, each worthy matron placed a yellow rose in it. The Torrance boys put on the skit, "The Sparkling Order of the Great Dipper." Other numbers of the program were the reading of a vocal solo. After the program ice cream and cake were served.

A BEACH PARTY

Mrs. Wm. Creighton, assisted by Mrs. Fraser and Miss Grace Burnham, entertained her Sunday school class at a beach party at Clifton Monday evening from 4 to 7. Twenty-one kiddies from the class and three visitors enjoyed the day hiking and eating. Songs were sung around the fire after the wienie bake.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Throckmorton, of the Venthrokwat Building Company, returned Tuesday from a two months' eastern trip. During their absence they attended the national convention of the Spanish-American War Veterans at Michigan City, Ind. Mr. Throckmorton was a delegate to the veterans' convention, and Mrs. Throckmorton to the Auxiliary convention.

Editor Torrance Herald.

Dear Sir: Only one man elected to the Presidency of this United States fully carried out the principles of his platform. That was Abraham Lincoln.

Now, in my opinion, the people of this country have a candidate who is the equal of that great and honest statesman and will once more give to the people that long-sought principle—a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. That man is Robert M. La Follette.

The Fighting Bob (Lincoln the Second) dares come before the people and tell them what the Republican party has degenerated into.

He stands for clear-cut policies which neither of the other two candidates dare to express, but only hide behind the constitution and flaunt that old worn-out fallacy of "the red flag" and "Bolshevik." Is it not time the common people open their eyes?

JOE PRATA. P. S.—One good cigar smoker from the La Follette Club will pull more votes than the "III" of the Cal Coolidge Club. J. P.
